FRANK CAPRA MOVIES TCM 132, beginning at 8pm

CATCH A CLASSIC!

Frank Capra had a rags-to-riches story in his own life: Born in Italy and raised in Los Angeles from the age of 5, he went on to become one of the most famous filmmakers in Hollywood history. So it's no surprise that many of the themes in the director's movies exemplified the best of American ideals and the so-called "American Dream." You'll see a few of them tonight in Turner Classic Movies' five-film lineup of Capra titles. The first three are movies Capra made with actress Jean Arthur: Mr. Smith Goes to Washington (1939), Mr. Deeds Goes to Town (1936) and You Can't Take It With You (1938). The Capra-thon continues early tomorrow morning with It Happened One Night (1934), the seminal screwball comedy that is one of the few films in Hollywood history to have won Oscars in each of the five main categories – Best Picture, Best Actor (Clark Gable), Best Actress (Claudette Colbert), Best Director (Capra) and Best Writing, Adaptation (Robert Riskin); and, finally, Lady for a Day (1933), a pre-Code comedy/drama that netted Capra his first Best Director Oscar nod.
