■ "Survivor" Epic Ending!

I've been a longtime fan of the CBS series Survivor. I don't really have a question, but I just wanted to write and share how I thought this past season had such a wonderful ending. The Survivor named Gabler was such an underdog the entire season. In a series where the older players are often targeted first for elimination, Gabler kept his cool and went into his "stealth" mode and was able to win the million. But what was so special about it was that he said he was taking his $1 million cash prize and donating to a charity for veterans in need in the name of his father, Robert Gabler. The world needs more people like that. Kudos and thanks to Gabler! — Tom

It was an epic end! Mike Gabler, an Idaho heart valve specialist, received seven of the eight votes and was named the winner of Survivor Season 43 in the December season finale. The 52-year-old Gabler was the second-oldest winner in the history of the show and was definitely not on his competitors' radar in terms of being a threat. He said of his gameplay during the course of the season: "The best assassin doesn't show up at the castle with an ax saying, 'I'm here to kill the king.' He or she slips into the kitchen, puts a vial of poison in the king's bowl and leaves." And while Gabler executed a brilliant game strategy, his heart was even bigger. What an amazing act of generosity. The next season will begin in March.

■ Magnum Gets A New Home

Why is Magnum P.I. moving to a different network? — Carol

This past May, CBS canceled the contemporary spinoff Magnum P.I. that first debuted in 2018, but NBC was quick to pick it up for two new 10-episode seasons with an option for more. The series returns this month on NBC. "It was a bit circuitous but we did it!" series star Jay Hernandez tweeted. "Your love & support helped

ROMPER ROOM

Many preschoolers strove to be "Do Bees" thanks to this syndicated educational show that ran Feb. 10, 1953-Dec. 20, 1994. It had various local versions and hosts who used their Magic Mirrors to greet the audience; Nancy Terrell ("Miss Nancy") led the national version in the 1960s/early '70s.

ST. CLARE BECOMES PATRON SAINT OF TELEVISION

Clare of Assisi was canonized in 1255; on Feb. 17, 1958, Pope Pius XII named her the patron saint of television (because Clare had reportedly been able to see and hear Mass on the wall of her room when she was too ill to attend).

■ “Yellowstone” On Hiatus

I'm frustrated with Yellowstone and its weird schedule. I mean, why would they air the midseason finale on New Year's Day — it's a holiday and people are busy? — Lisa

As previously reported, series creator Taylor Sheridan is one successfully busy man, and shows go on hiatus for talent and the creative teams to catch up. They too take time off for holidays. The series aired the first eight episodes of Season 5 already, and will air the remaining six episodes later in 2023. When the series will return has yet to be announced, but we will keep you posted.

■ Ellen Pompeo's Final Episode

I know Grey's Anatomy star Ellen Pompeo is leaving the show this year, but when is that? — Lori

Ellen Pompeo has played the titular character Meredith Grey on Grey's Anatomy since the show's beginning. Pompeo, who is also an executive producer, is exiting the show in February, although a date hasn't been released. She did gush to fans in an Instagram post recently, “I am eternally grateful and humbled by the love and support you have all shown me, Meredith GREY and the show for 19 seasons! Through it all ... none of it ... would have been possible without the best fans in the world. You all are RIDERS and you all have made the ride so fun and ICONIC!! I love you madly and appreciate you right back. This isn't your first time on the rollercoaster ... you know the show must go on and I'll definitely be back to visit. With a lot of love and immense gratitude XoE 🙏❤️.”

■ Congratulations!

Our December Reader Rewards winner of a Blu-ray of It's a Wonderful Life was Gary Oswald.

MISTER ROGERS' NEIGHBORHOOD

Kids (and kids at heart) were welcomed into the friendliest neighborhood in TV history, guided by one of the kindest human beings ever in host Fred Rogers, in this beloved, Peabody Award-winning series that aired nationally on NET and its successor, PBS, from Feb. 19, 1968-Aug. 31, 2001.

M*A*S*H: “GOODBYE, FAREWELL AND AMEN”

After 11 years — more than three times as long as the Korean War that served as its backdrop — the beloved dramedy *M*A*S*H* came to an end on Feb. 28, 1983, with this movie-length finale on CBS that was seen by over 100 million tearful viewers and remains the most-watched episode of a U.S. scripted series ever.

35 YEARS AGO

AMERICA'S MOST WANTED

Hosted in its original run by John Walsh on FOX from Feb. 7, 1988-June 18, 2011, then on Lifetime from Dec. 2, 2011-Oct. 12, 2012, later followed by a FOX revival in spring 2021 with host Elizabeth Vargas, this series spotlighted dangerous fugitives. As of the most recent special on April 12, 2021, viewer tips to AMW have helped lead to about 1,200 captures.

GENERAL HOSPITAL: TOM & SIMONE'S WEDDING

The first interracial wedding on a U.S. daytime drama took place in GH's Feb. 26, 1988, episode when Dr. Tom Hardy (David Wallace) married Dr. Simone Ravelle (Laura Carrington). Sadly, as with many marriages of all types, it didn't last; the characters divorced in 1995.

Rihanna will perform at this year's Super Bowl halftime show

SUPER BOWL LVII: IT'S A DRY HEAT

By Ryan A. Berenz

What's All This? Super Bowl LVII, the NFL's championship game for the 2022 season, is played Feb. 12 at State Farm Stadium in Glendale, Arizona. It's the fourth time the Phoenix area has hosted the Super Bowl, the last being the 2014 season.

Where's Next Year's Game? Vegas, baby!

What's LVII In Regular Numbers? 57.

Is There Football? Yes. The conference champions weren't set as of presstime. Regardless, this feels like a year in which the AFC is just going to pummel the NFC in the Super Bowl. Maybe something like the Buffalo Bills taking 30 years of frustration out on the Philadelphia Eagles by a score of 52-6?

Is It On TV? FOX airs the game with play-by-play man Kevin Burkhardt and analyst Greg Olsen in the broadcast booth, and Erin Andrews and Tom Rinaldi reporting.

How Many People Watch It? Super Bowl LVI between the Cincinnati Bengals and champion Los Angeles Rams averaged 101.1 million TV viewers and another 11.2 million streaming. It was the 11th most watched broadcast in U.S. TV history.

Who's Performing At Halftime? Rihanna's going to feel like the only girl (in the world) when she takes the stage. Apple Music is the show's new sponsor.

How Much For A Commercial? A 30-second spot has hit the $7 million mark. Stupid inflation! Molson Coors will appear for the first time in more than 30 years as Anheuser-Busch no longer has exclusivity for alcohol ads. Downy Unstopables, Avocados From Mexico, M&Ms, Rakuten, Hellmann's mayonnaise, Pringles, and sports betting platforms FanDuel and DraftKings are also making pitches during the game.

What's On FOX After? Gordon Ramsay will yell a lot and crush the spirits of people who just want to make food in the Season 2 premiere of Next Level Chef.

5 QUESTIONS WITH ROMÁN ZARAGOZA OF CBS' "GHOSTS" By Jacqueline Cutler

As a toddler, Román Zaragoza watched his dad, Gregory Zaragoza, play Chief Sitting Bull in a Broadway revival of Annie Get Your Gun.

"So before I was 3 years old, I was seeing the show, going backstage, hanging out with Bernadette Peters, and I had crushes on all of the young female performers in the show," he says. "I just fell in love with theater right away and the community aspect of it all."

On his day off from CBS' breakout hit Ghosts (Thursdays), where he's Sasappis, Zaragoza spoke over Zoom to answer our "5 Questions."

1 Have you ever had a ghostly experience?

Growing up, I definitely felt connected to my grandfather, who passed on before I was born, and I bear his name. When I was really young, I felt this connection to my grandfather, and I remember my mom would tell me that she would see me just talking to the corner. And she said, "Who are you talking to?" And I would respond, "Grandpa." My mom would be like, "This is really cute and terrifying." It's really cool to feel that connection with ancestors that I never even really knew.

2 Did you always want to be an actor?

It was very encouraged at a young age because my dad fell in love with it when he was in his 30s after being a lawyer. So he and my mom put us into singing, acting and dancing classes at such a young age. And seeing my two older sisters do it, I was like, I have to do this.

3 Tell us about a time when you were starstruck.

In 2017, I was coming out of a hair salon, and I saw all these paparazzi outside. Selena Gomez was taking a yoga class downstairs. I loved her growing up. She's awesome, but I'm not going to freak out or go out of my way to bump into her. I walked down the stairs and literally bumped into her. And I'm like, "Hi, I just want to say I'm a big fan. This is so cool. And I just hope you're doing well."

4 Who would you have at a mythical dinner party that anyone can attend?

Heath Ledger. I just want to talk to him. I have so many questions. I just want to be his friend. He just seemed like such a cool, cool dude and so talented, so free. Bruce Lee would be awesome to talk to about philosophy. I started taking Wing Chun recently, a form of kung fu, so I would love to talk to him about martial arts. Also, Neil Patrick Harris and Michelle Obama.

5 What were some jobs you had before acting?

I was an assistant to an electrician. My mom wanted me to learn trades, and one of my friends, her dad was an electrician, and I followed him around for a few months. At the L.A. Auto Show, I was a helpful Honda person and told people where the bathroom was. I went from college to the Oregon Shakespeare Festival.

Can't Find That New Show You Read About? Just Search For It!

Today it's almost getting harder to keep track of all the good TV. Clearly, you've got OnDISH Magazine, which is the best way to stay in the know, see what's new and what's returning, and discover new movies and specials, along with reviewing sports lineups every month. Another helpful tool is the search function on your receiver.

Search allows you to find the shows you read or heard about, whether they are available on DISH or another source, so you can watch them live and/or create timers to record them.

There are multiple remote controls for the various receivers, so we've broken down a few of them to make sure you know how to use the feature.

The “Dirty Dancing” Star
Takes Us Behind The Scenes
Of Her Transformation Into
Gwen Shamblin.

By Barb Oates

“You couldn’t come up with something more bananas to me,” Jennifer Grey tells us of her newest role that finds her playing controversial Remnant Fellowship Church founder and Christian diet guru Gwen Shamblin. “You know how they say you couldn’t write this @#$$%? You couldn’t write this @#$$%!”

Grey, who catapulted to fame in the ’80s with her roles in Dirty Dancing and Ferris Bueller’s Day Off, has always been attracted to projects that push her out of her comfort zone and stretch her creativity — including her 2010 stint on Dancing With the Stars, where she and her partner Derek Hough walked away as the season winners. And her latest, Gwen Shamblin: Starving for Salvation, was no exception, and actually included a few career firsts for the star.

“You couldn’t come up with something more bananas.”
— Jennifer Grey

“When this offer came in, I had no conception of who Gwen Shamblin was. I hadn’t seen the HBO documentary [The Way Down: God, Greed and the Cult of Gwen Shamblin] that a lot of people I knew had seen. And I immediately downloaded it, watched it, was appalled and stunned, and thrilled to be able to put my mind around playing this person who couldn’t be more of a leap for me,” she shares. “I’m always fascinated by charismatic leaders (let’s call it that). And the fact that people have hooked into the zeitgeist. ... I’m fascinated by the psychological, the power that someone can gain from really hooking into a need in the culture and how much people want to turn over their will and their lives to this person who they believe will deliver the results that have eluded them.”

She’s speaking of Shamblin, who rose to fame with her 1997 bestselling book The Weigh Down Diet: Gwen Shamblin’s Inspirational Way to Lose Weight, Stay Slim, and Find a New You and her Weigh Down workshops, which eventually morphed into the megachurch she founded.

The film spans roughly 20 years of Shamblin’s life, from her humble beginnings to her rise to power. “Trying to understand how this empire was built. How this enormous power was accumulated and attained by this woman who founded a church in Tennessee, in this very Christian conservative landscape that traditionally had only been dominated by men” was a gripping exploration, Grey says. “How this woman who grew up in the Church of Christ, where women were extremely disempowered, where it was all about the men and very Handmaid’s Tale-like — I was thinking, ‘How do you go from that to becoming this powerhouse person who believes that she is here to help save people through a faith-based diet?’”

“For me, it was the most foreign idea and the most dangerous idea that made me so sad that people were so willing to follow her and to believe that she somehow had the inside track to God and what it meant to live a holy life, a faith-based life.”

Transforming Into Gwen: The Craziest Wig Story

Much of Shamblin’s life was documented on film and served as the film’s source material, from her early preachings and her chat series Life With Gwen & Joe (a series she did with her second husband Joe Lara, the Tarzan actor turned church handyman turned religious leader) to her guest appearances on Larry King Live and The View. Shamblin had a larger-than-life public persona, and her towering hair that was teased to the moon was a definite standout.

Before Grey closed the deal to star as Shamblin, she consulted with her longtime friend and screen legend Jamie Lee Curtis, who suggested she immediately contact the greatest wig creator ever, Rob Pickens.

“I called him because I do whatever Jamie tells me to do,” Grey laughs. “I called Rob and said, ‘Hey, Jamie told me I have to call you. I haven’t closed this deal, but this is the picture of the woman.’ I told him that I would only do this if I could get some really great wigs and have a really great dialect coach.”

Grey got both.

“Those were the two things I’ve never done. I’ve never worn a wig and I’ve never done a dialect,” she shares. “I’m not interested in doing a job unless I’m really scared because that makes it interesting to me. When it’s scary, that’s when you’re like, ‘OK, I guess this is time to, this is go.’”

The wig that Grey dons during Shamblin’s younger years (when Shamblin had a bob) is a story in itself, as Pickens repurposed Jamie’s old wig from Halloween.

“I have a recycled wig, and then I have that giant mane,” Grey says, also crediting her amazing hairdresser who brought the crazy to her character’s later-in-life hairdo.

“You could see as she became more powerful, her look became much more extreme. And it was like you could track the trajectory of her emotional life through her hair and her makeup and her weight,” Grey concludes. “You can just see the decline of her mental health and her physical health. And then the hair becomes crazier and crazier.”

Shamblin’s reign came to a tragic end in May 2021, when the plane that her husband Joe was flying crashed shortly after takeoff, killing Gwen, Joe, their son-in-law and four other church leaders.

It’s indeed a story you just couldn’t have written.

HISTORY'S GREATEST HEISTS

Tuesdays beginning Feb. 7 on HISTORY
NEW SERIES!

"The masterminds behind every great heist see what most people don't," says host Pierce Brosnan during his introduction to the first episode of the new nonfiction series History's Greatest Heists.

Brosnan's insight is quite accurate, and thanks to this series, viewers will now be able to get some glimpse into what these criminal geniuses saw that allowed them to pull off, and in some cases get away with, incredibly bold thefts that rival anything seen in a Hollywood film. In a number of instances, they were able to see the slightest cracks in even the most seemingly impenetrable security systems, and to pinpoint and exploit the failings of the humans behind some of the security.

"They're rogues," Brosnan explained to us further in an interview, describing the brash thieves chronicled in this series, and why fictional and real-life stories like these continue to be so compelling to audiences.

"They're very charming men, a lot of these guys. ... They know how to act. They know how to deal with people. They know the psychology of the world. When you have that person that's charismatic, and also breaking the law and doing something that is really just out of bounds, off the charts, seriously, bad news if it goes wrong ... the movies are made of that. ... We like to see people break the law, try and steal things, trying to steal money.

"I think that's the appeal of [this] show, the audacity and the baldfaced courage that these men portray in real life, and the planning and the scheming. ... Some of these guys were just off-the-planet kind of crazy and also brilliant. Just brilliant. It takes balls to go out there and do what they do."

The eight episodes of History's Greatest Heists uncover the meticulous planning, daring execution and shocking aftermath behind such ballsy characters pulling off some of the most elaborate real-life heists in history, including the notorious 1978 Lufthansa heist (familiar to fans of the movie Goodfellas) at New York's JFK Airport, in which the thieves stole cash and jewelry worth roughly $24 million in today's money; the half-billion-dollar art theft from Boston's Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum in 1990; the 2003 heist of over $100 million worth of diamonds, gold, silver and other types of jewelry in Antwerp, Belgium, which has been dubbed the "heist of the century"; and more. The series uses dramatic re-creations, first-person witness accounts, and special effects that embed Brosnan into each heist to break down every aspect of the plans and put viewers in the center of the action.

As an actor, Brosnan has played characters who have famously done their share of sneaking into places, stealing items and then slipping back out, generally unscathed — notably as James Bond and as the title character in the 1999 remake of the classic heist film The Thomas Crown Affair. So he's a natural to guide viewers through these real-world heists, and he does so with his usual suave flair and a touch of wry humor, helping make each episode feel like a fun and suspenseful mini-heist movie where you are so astounded by how these thieves concocted and executed their schemes that you almost root for them to succeed even as you also want to see them get their comeuppance.

"I love heist movies," Brosnan says, echoing the sentiment of many viewers throughout film history. "I understood why [History] came to me [to host], having done Thomas Crown, which I made a long time ago but still kind of holds a place in people's hearts. I thought it was an appealing way to go into it and to do this kind of work."

As fun and exciting as these stories can be, there is a fine line that Brosnan and the series successfully walk, making the events thrilling without necessarily glorifying the culprits, especially in cases where a heist involves violence.

"As an audience, you want them to get away with it," Brosnan offers, "[but] you don't want anyone to be hurt. The ones that have violence, they're just ... it's the darkest side of the game, which is a knife's edge. ... I think we found a good balance, and I'd like to think that I, as an actor, understood the material and understood that fine line, that these are men who are breaking the law. There are consequences for their actions. ... However you cut it, they're out of line."

Along with Brosnan's overarching narration, there are also onscreen interviews with experts in security, criminology and other fields who break down details of each heist; the first half of each hourlong episode sets up the planning, the gathering of the team, etc., with the second half presenting a blow-by-blow look at the heist itself, all reenacted with actors.

"It takes a bold plan [and] the right team," Brosnan adds at one point in that first episode as he describes how a great heist is pulled off. That description could also apply to what it takes to put together a compelling television series, and History's Greatest Heists has just such an effective plan and team in its own execution.

2 THE COMPANY YOU KEEP

Sundays beginning
Feb. 19 on ABC
NEW SERIES!

Based on the successful Korean series My Fellow Citizens, this new ABC spy drama follows a charismatic con man (Milo Ventimiglia) and an undercover CIA agent (Catherine Haena Kim) on a collision course of professional and romantic natures. Emma (Kim) has been working to catch the vengeful criminal who is keeping Charlie (Ventimiglia) from leaving a life of crime behind him, and the closer she gets, the higher the stakes become for everyone.

"This guy feels different, this love feels different," Kim says of their compelling pairing. "We meet without knowing anything about each other. So, it's that moment when you see someone and it feels like they just get it, they get you, and you look over and you think, 'Oh, it's you. It's going to be you.' And then it's on."

Ventimiglia, who played the beloved Jack Pearson on This Is Us for six seasons, transitioned almost immediately into his new role.

"I got a haircut, had a shave, and I was on set as Charlie doing the pilot," he shares. "I took a few months off after that to write some scripts; I went and did a movie. And then two weeks after that movie, I was back on set again doing the series."

As a Robin Hood-type criminal whose biggest concern is keeping his family safe, the role of Charlie is definitely more action-oriented — and he's got the on-set injuries to prove it. (Before our discussion, Ventimiglia had just gotten an MRI for an on-set collision.)

"There's action, there's a lot of excitement, a lot of near misses and a lot of heart. ... There's something for everyone," he says. "Charlie's a good bad guy. The family has a moral code. They're not going after people who don't deserve it."

Playing a character who's also playing multiple characters [blending into various worlds] is just candy for an actor. Charlie's definitely given me the opportunity to stretch and flex as an actor."

The quick transition into being Charlie was not a difficult one, Ventimiglia says. "I played Jack for so long that everything I played of him was on instinct. He just existed. I put the mustache on, and the clothes of the decade, and he was just alive. There was not much I had to do. So, it was easy to shed Jack and finally put the man to rest."

Ventimiglia has a very clear idea of who Charlie is and has no problem leaning into this complex new role. "He's very unremarkable, very unmemorable, a very simple guy. Jeans and T-shirt kind of guy. He owns a bar, drives a simple car, nothing flashy, nothing that jumps out at you. Just a really normal guy," he adds. "So, when he enters the con world, the con space, he can completely blend into that world. Being a gunrunner, being a photo assistant, being in the art world, he's able to reflect the targets and the marks that he's going after. When he steps into the con world, that's where the real work takes over, where I've got to understand the difference between who he's playing as the con man and who he is as an individual. He's got to be several steps ahead of everybody; he has a strong situational awareness."

Emma is similarly observant, says Kim; it's one of the things the two characters have in common. "At first glance, we're seemingly very different. You'll come to see how similar we actually are. For one, we both lie for a living." Both characters seem to have trust issues as well, which are visible from the moment they meet. "Before she even knows he's a con artist, she is wondering, 'Can I trust you with my heart?' Which, I think, we can all relate to," she adds. "Falling in love is exciting, and also terrifying."

Do the two of them have what it takes to overcome so many obstacles? Only time will tell! — Zhanna Slor

OUR MILO FAVORITES

Milo Ventimiglia has been dazzling us with his talents for over two decades now, so we thought it would be fun to take a trip down memory lane with him and hear about some of his most memorable moments and notable impressions from previous roles.

THIS IS US (2016-22)

Jack Pearson

"We had the best crew in town. Everyone from Dan Fogelman and the writers, through our editors, our preproduction teams, our actual production teams, art department, hair and makeup, wardrobe, properties, grips, and electrics. Top to bottom, what stands out to me the most is just the people that I made that show with. And beyond that, the impact the show had on viewers. Every age, every gender, every ethnicity, anywhere in the world, people could identify with the Pearsons. I'm blown away by it. Really truly blown away by it, and grateful that I could have been a part of it."

THAT'S MY BOY (2012) & GROWN UPS 2 (2013) ▶

"Both those films felt like summer camp. Everyone's laughing and having a good time. I remember saying something like, 'This is a blast.' And Adam [Sandler] saying to me, 'Yeah, but you're different than us.' And I go, 'What do you mean? I'm just like you guys.' He goes, 'No. You're a real actor. We're just a bunch of goofballs.' I was like, 'That's not accurate at all. I'm just like Chandler.'"

HEROES (2006-10)

Peter Petrelli

"We were the first of its kind. Before Heroes, there weren't many superhero [ensemble] stories. Particularly on TV, it was a singular superhero. It was Batman, it was Superman. This was before the Marvel movies. I remember the impact it had on people. That show was something people really couldn't wait week to week for the next episode."

GILMORE GIRLS (2001-06)

Jess Mariano

"What I appreciated [about the 2016 Netflix revival series] was that he leveled out. He might have been troubled when he was younger, he might have been too smart for his own good, but I like that he leveled out. He was never a bad kid. He was just too smart, and he was wounded. He didn't have a father; he was kind of passed around. He didn't have a strong male influence, and he needed that, and I think he definitely got it from his Uncle Luke. The fact that kids today are watching the show and really into it just shows how talented Amy and Dan [Palladino] were creating it. It's a very satisfying thing as an actor to speak their words. They're very good at what they do."

3 NOT DEAD YET

Wednesdays beginning Feb. 8 on ABC
NEW SERIES!

From the team that brought you the hit drama This Is Us (David Windsor and Casey Johnson) comes a new lighthearted comedy about a writer in crisis, played by Jane the Virgin's Gina Rodriguez, who returns to her California hometown to work at the newspaper she left years earlier to follow her ex to London. Newly single and a self-described disaster, Nell gets the only job available, which is writing obituaries. The trouble is, however, that the people who she is assigned to write about begin to appear as ghosts and follow her around town, often to give her advice about her own life. With support from her best friend/coworker (Hannah Simone) and former-friend-turned-editor Dennis (Josh Banday), and the new friends she meets along the way, Nell navigates the curves life has thrown her way with humor and poise.

Josh
Banday

Banday told us it's his favorite role so far, because it feels so close to who he is in real life. "A lot of his story was just so real to me in a way that no other character has been. His worries about marriage and parenthood and relationships were all of my worries. There are times I would go to the writer's room and just be like, 'Who are you people? And what are you doing in my life?' It just made him very easy to embody and to play and to make fun of and be funny in," he says. "Dennis is a bisexual character. I'm bisexual. And I'm just honored to be able to play the role. I haven't seen a lot of specifically bisexual stories on network television."

While the show is technically a comedy (Banday is especially funny, on the show and in reality), Banday says it still has very heartfelt moments, too. "You're laughing, you're laughing, you're laughing. And then it ends and you're like, 'Wow. I felt something.' It's not just broad comedy for broad comedy's sake, which is fun. The ghosts are as beautifully imperfect as some of the other characters. Nobody is giving perfect advice. There's not a lot of sage wisdom. They're all just these beautiful misfits that come into her life and say, 'I think you're messing this up, but I was also trash.'"

Based on the bestselling novel Confessions of a Forty-Something Fk Up by Alexandra Potter, Not Dead Yet promises to be delightful. After all, "ghosts" are all the rage these days! — Zhanna Slor

4 PARTY DOWN

Fridays beginning Feb. 24 on STARZ
SEASON PREMIERE!

It's been more than 10 years since we've seen those pink bowties and witnessed the scathing sarcasm from a ridiculously incompetent and uninterested team of waiters working at a Los Angeles catering service and trying to make ends meet while pursuing their real dreams of stardom. The gang is back in a six-episode third season follow-up of Party Down, with the majority of the original cast returning.

Party Down originally aired on Starz for two seasons from 2009-10 and, at the time, starred a relatively unknown cast that included Adam Scott (Big Little Lies), Jane Lynch (Glee), Lizzy Caplan (Masters of Sex), Ken Marino (Wanderlust), Ryan Hansen (Veronica Mars) and Martin Starr (Freaks and Geeks). Caplan is not returning for Season 3, but Jennifer Garner, Tyrel Jackson Williams and James Marsden will join the cast. The series picks up with the gang at a surprise reunion where you'll learn who's still in the business (and happy about it!) and who's moved on to find some unusual success (at least for now!).

5 ANIMAL CONTROL

Thursdays
beginning Feb. 16 on FOX
NEW SERIES!

If you've got possums in your RV, squirrels nesting in your attic or an exotic reptile smuggling operation that has gotten completely out of hand, you may want to think again before calling Animal Control, especially if they're sending these guys.

Joel McHale executive produces and stars in this new single-camera workplace comedy as Frank, a former cop who got fired for being a whistleblower and now works as a surly and cynical Animal Control officer. "Frank secretly loves the animals,"

McHale says. "He leads on that he doesn't care about anything, but he actually does care about the animals."

And there are a lot of them on the Animal Control set, including tarantulas, a horse, a bear, a cougar and a Burmese python that got snuggly with McHale. "I keep sending my wife photos, and she is like, 'Boy, this really is the perfect job for you,'" he says. "I've enjoyed it, and the animals are some of the more agreeable cast members I've ever worked with. BAM!"

Frank finds that the critters might be easier to deal with than his coworkers. Among them is Frank's upbeat rookie partner and former professional snowboarder Fred "Shred" Taylor (Michael Rowland), stressed-out family man Amit (Ravi Patel), free spirit

Victoria (Grace Palmer), receptionist Dolores (Kelli Ogmundson), and overwhelmed boss Emily (Vella Lovell).

Frank has the hots for veterinarian Dr. Summers (Alvina August), but she loves snow sports and is really into Fred. "Frank is very upfront about who he's trying to make a move on," McHale says. "Frank's got a lot of plans. They might not necessarily all go well."

MARVEL'S MOON GIRL AND DEVIL DINOSAUR

Fridays beginning Feb. 10 on DISNEY CHANNEL
NEW SERIES!

Those with an encyclopedic knowledge of the Marvel Comics universe might have some brain space way in the back devoted to Devil Dinosaur, a comic book created by Jack Kirby and first published in 1978. Devil Dinosaur was an unusually intelligent, time- and space-traveling Tyrannosaurus who fought enemies alongside humanoid sidekick Moon-Boy.

In 2015, Marvel took a new spin on the characters with the comic Moon Girl and Devil Dinosaur, relocating the action to modern New York City and giving top billing to Lunella Lafayette and her Moon Girl superhero alter ego.

Laurence Fishburne, a true comic book aficionado, was inspired to bring the duo to the screen in the new animated series Marvel's Moon Girl and Devil Dinosaur for Disney Channel. Fishburne executive produces the series and also voices a character known as "The Beyonder."

"His knowledge of Marvel history is pretty amazing," fellow executive producer Steve Loter says of Fishburne. "He's always on the hunt for new comic inspiration."

Singer/actor Diamond White voices 13-year-old genius Lunella, who lives with her family on Manhattan's Lower East Side. When one of her inventions opens a time portal, she meets Devil Dinosaur (voiced by Fred Tatasciore), and the two quickly form a bond that will make things rough for bad guys in the five boroughs.

The all-star voice cast includes Alfre Woodard and Jermaine Fowler, with guest voices by Alison Brie, Andy Cohen, Daveed Diggs, Maya Hawke, Jennifer Hudson, Luis Guzmán, Craig Robinson, Cobie Smulders, Wesley Snipes and many others. A second season has already been ordered. — Ryan A. Berenz

Sunday, Feb. 5 on CBS

Comedian and former host of The Daily Show Trevor Noah returns for the third consecutive year as emcee of Music's Biggest Night. The Recording Academy's accolades for the year's best in music take place at Crypto.com Arena in Los Angeles. Beyoncé leads all nominees with nine, and is now tied with husband Jay-Z for the most nominations of all time with 88. Kendrick Lamar has eight, followed by Adele and Brandi Carlile with seven each. Rounding out the top nominees are Mary J. Blige, DJ Khaled, Future, The-Dream, Randy Merrill and Harry Styles with six apiece.

10 AMERICAN EXPERIENCE: "RUTHLESS: MONOPOLY'S SECRET HISTORY"

Monday, Feb. 20 on PBS

It's likely that most people reading this have played Monopoly, which has remained one of America's favorite board games for generations, or at least know of it. But no matter how cutthroat your family game nights may have gotten when playing Monopoly, as everyone tried to acquire hotels, real estate, railroads and utilities at all costs, that pales in comparison to how ruthless certain elements in the history of the game's development were. This film — which is part detective story, part sharp social commentary and part pop-culture celebration — delves into that relatively untold story, going behind the myth of Monopoly's creation to reveal a tale of theft, obsession and corporate double-dealing.

21ST ANNUAL MOVIES FOR GROWNUPS AWARDS

Friday, Feb. 17 on PBS

Recorded at the end of January and again hosted by Alan Cumming, this year's installment of AARP's annual ceremony honors movies from 2022 that have resonated with older (50-plus) audiences, and the stars of those films who have defied notions of what actors and actresses can or can't do as they get older, including 60-year-old Best Actress nominee Michelle Yeoh (Everything Everywhere All at Once) and 60-year-old Best Actor nominee Tom Cruise (Top Gun: Maverick).

Jamie Lee Curtis, who is also nominated as Best Supporting Actress for her role in Everything Everywhere All at Once, will receive this year's Career Achievement Award. AARP CEO Jo Ann Jenkins explains that Curtis' "longstanding, ever-increasing career shatters Hollywood's outmoded stereotypes about aging, and it exemplifies what AARP's Movies for Grownups program is all about."

Films nominated in the Best Picture/Best Movie for Grownups category are Elvis, Everything Everywhere All at Once, The Fabelmans (which leads the field with six nominations overall), Tár, Top Gun: Maverick, The Woman King and Women Talking.

Nominees for Best TV Series are Abbott Elementary (ABC), The Old Man (FX), Only Murders in the Building (Hulu), The White Lotus (HBO) and Yellowstone (Paramount Network).

DOGS IN THE WILD:
A “NATURE” MINISERIES

Wednesdays,
Feb. 8-22 on PBS

The “dog days” might traditionally fall during the late summer, but you’ll get a nice dose of canines on television a few days during this late-winter month with the return of a long-running programming favorite, and the debut of a new miniseries. That miniseries is Dogs in the Wild, a three-part special installment of PBS’ Nature that travels the globe to reveal the secrets of the most successful carnivore on the planet: the canids. From the recognizable and familiar, like foxes, wolves, African wild dogs and coyotes, to the lesser-known ones, such as the Japanese raccoon dog, New Guinea singing dog, dholes and dingoes, wild members of the canine family have established themselves on every continent except Antarctica. Of course, the most widespread and recognizable member of this varied group is the one that shares many of our homes as a beloved member of the family: Canis familiaris, the domestic dog. — Jeff Pfeiffer

PUPPY BOWL XIX

Sunday, Feb. 12 on ANIMAL PLANET

Animal Planet’s Puppy Bowl returns for its 19th year as a Super Bowl programming alternative, with 122 adoptable puppies from 67 shelters and rescues across 34 states taking to the gridiron in the three-hour special. During the game, audiences will also meet 11 special-needs puppy players looking for their forever homes. An hour before the main event begins, a pregame show will offer, among other things, a first look at this year’s Kitty Halftime Show, for fans of Felis catus (domestic cat).

SNOWFALL

Wednesdays beginning Feb. 22 on FX

SEASON PREMIERE!

The story of how Los Angeles' crack cocaine epidemic began is coming to an end. The 10-episode sixth and final season of Snowfall, which followed young drug kingpin Franklin Saint (Damson Idris) as his empire grew while South Central L.A. collapsed, starts with a two-part premiere. In October 1986, Franklin is desperate after being wiped out by former CIA officer Teddy McDonald (Carter Hudson), and resorts to robbing his Aunt Louie (Angela Lewis) and Uncle Jerome (Amin Joseph). Louie is building her own drug operation, putting her in direct competition with Franklin. With the KGB, DEA, CIA and corrupt LAPD also bearing down on them, will the Saint family be able to survive? And what will they become?

A MILLION LITTLE THINGS

Final season begins Wednesday, Feb. 8 on ABC

The series about a tightknit group of friends who become motivated to improve their lives after one of them unexpectedly dies is coming to an end after its fifth season. "I always knew I wanted to follow these friends for five seasons and leave them when the time was right," creator and executive producer DJ Nash said in a statement last year.

THE FLASH

Final season begins Wednesday, Feb. 8 on THE CW

The 13-episode final season picks up one week after the epic battle fought by Barry Allen (Grant Gustin) and Iris West-Allen (Candice Patton). Supergirl's Nicole Maines is also set to reprise her role as Nia Nal, aka Dreamer, for the final season. "As Supergirl fans ourselves, all of us here on The Flash are SUPER excited to have Nicole join Team Flash for a one-off adventure as we put together our final season," says showrunner Eric Wallace. "Nicole is a fantastically talented actress and I'm so happy she's agreed to be part of a very special Season 9 episode where I get to cross off one of my 'Arrowverse Bucket List' team-ups: having two fantastic reporters — Iris West-Allen and Nia Nal — investigate their own very bizarre and frightening mystery." Brad Schwartz, president of entertainment at The CW Network, said, "The Flash will be remembered as one of the greatest shows in the history of The CW, and everyone involved in its excellent nine-season run should be very proud. The team has delivered an epic final season, filled with plenty of twists, guest stars and surprises that will delight every fan. Now is the time to catch up and enjoy this fantastic final ride alongside the fastest man alive."

CARNIVAL ROW

Final season begins Friday, Feb. 17 on PRIME VIDEO

After some production delays, the 10-episode second and final season of this Victorian fantasy series starring Orlando Bloom and Cara Delevingne will return with a focus on ex-inspector Philo (Bloom) investigating a series of gruesome murders that are stoking social tension. New episodes will air every Friday.

RETURNING ORIGINAL SERIES

You

Season 4 is in two five-episode parts:

Part 1 — Available Feb. 9

Part 2 — Available March 9

You cocreator Sera Gamble returns as showrunner for the 10-episode season, which sees Penn Badgley and Tati Gabrielle reprising their roles as Joe Goldberg and Marienne Bellamy, respectively. Also joining the main cast are Lukas Gage, Charlotte Ritchie, Tilly Keeper, Amy-Leigh Hickman and Ed Speleers. Season 4 will see Joe move to London, where he takes on a new alias, Professor Jonathan Moore, and becomes infatuated with art gallery director Kate (Ritchie). Meanwhile, the relationship between Joe and Marienne is set to become even more complicated.

Outer Banks

Season 3 Available Feb. 23

Season 3 follows the Pogues' — including John B (Chase Stokes), Sarah (Madelyn Cline), Kiara (Madison Bailey), Pope (Jonathan Daviss), JJ (Rudy Pankow) and Cleo (Carlacia Grant) — time on an island, which seems like an idyllic home they deem "Poguelandia." After losing the gold and fleeing the Outer Banks, they spend their days fishing, swimming and reveling in the carefree lifestyle of their temporary dwelling. But everything quickly goes south for the pals when they find themselves caught up in a race for treasure and running for their lives.

The Upshaws

Season 3

Available Feb. 16

In this upcoming season, the Upshaws are expected to continue to ride life's ups and downs, including new loves, old flames, big dreams, life changes, and the love and drama that come with family.

When we last left the family at the end of Season 2, Bennie (Mike Epps) and Lucretia (Wanda Sykes) — in the middle of a sisterly fight with Regina (Kim Fields) — get arrested for reselling stolen parts.

ORIGINAL SERIES

Detective Conan: The Culprit Hanzawa

Available Feb. 1

In this spinoff of the Detective Conan anime franchise, the hero is the bad guy. A mysterious Dark Shadow descends upon Beika Town, a city with one of the highest crime rates in the world, with the goal to kill a "certain man." A key player from Detective Conan is now a protagonist and, clad in tights and possessing a pure intellect, adopts the identity of Culprit Hanzawa to try to save the day.

Freeridge

Available Feb. 2

This eight-episode spinoff of the 2018-21 teen comedy/drama On My Block is a half-hour coming-of-age comedy that follows sibling rivals Gloria (Keyla Monterroso Mejia) and Ines (Bryana Salaz), and their friends Demi (Ciara Riley Wilson) and Cameron (Tenzing Norgay Trainor), who have unleashed a curse that brings dark misfortune and an unforgettable adventure into their lives. On My Block cast members who will be returning here include Paula Garcés, Eric Gutierrez, Eme Ikwuakor and Raushanah Simmons.

My Dad the Bounty Hunter

Available Feb. 9

In this 10-episode animated action/comedy, siblings Lisa (voice of Priah Ferguson) and Sean (JeCobi Swain) stow away on their father's (Laz Alonso) latest work trip, hoping to finally get some quality time together. Little do they know that Dad has been keeping a secret from them — he's actually the toughest bounty hunter in the galaxy. Launched into a surprise space adventure, Lisa and Sean discover that their seemingly average dad's job is anything but boring.

ORIGINAL FILMS

Dog Gone

Available Now

Rob Lowe, Kimberly Williams-Paisley and Johnny Berchtold star in this touching drama. After a young man and his beloved dog are separated on the Appalachian Trail, he and his father must begin a desperate search to find him before it's too late. Based on an incredible true story of humanity and everyday heroism.

Call Me Chihiro

Available Feb. 23

Based on the 2013-18 Japanese manga Chihiro-san, this drama tells the story of a former sex worker named Chihiro (Kasumi Arimura), who works at a small bento (take-out meal) shop in a seaside town. There, she interacts with people whose mental scars and struggles leave them unable to live happily, and her words and actions influence each person's way of living.

Your Place or Mine

Available Feb. 10

Reese Witherspoon and Ashton Kutcher headline this romantic comedy as Debbie and Peter, best friends and total opposites. She craves routine with her son in Los Angeles; he thrives on change in New York City. When they swap houses and lives for a week, they discover what they think they want might not be what they really need. Jesse Williams, Steve Zahn, Tig Notaro and Zoë Chao also star.

True Spirit

Available Feb. 3

This biographical drama chronicles the true story of Australian teenager Jessica Watson (Teagan Croft), who in 2009, at age 16, set out to be the youngest person ever to sail solo, nonstop and unassisted around the world. Many expected her to fail, but with the support of her sailing coach and mentor Ben Bryant (Cliff Curtis), and her parents (Anna Paquin and Josh Lawson), Jessica remained determined to accomplish what was thought to be impossible over the course of 210 days.

NEW DOCUSERIES

Pamela, a Love Story

CRITIC PICK OF THE MONTH

Make It A Movie Night!

Movies. They have brought so much into my life since falling in love with the medium. This film from Steven Spielberg gives a semiautobiographical look into the filmmaker's family and upbringing. It eloquently mixes good and bad aspects of life's journey with a delicate and memorable performance from Michelle Williams. Paul Dano, Gabriel LaBelle, Judd Hirsch and Seth Rogen also star. With film at the center of this experience, viewers are gifted with a rare treat, courtesy of one of the best to ever step behind the camera.

It's my pick of the month.

Paul Hall is a nationally syndicated film critic and member of the Critics Choice Association (CCA).

The Fabelmans

(Drama) The power of the movies helps a young boy in the post-World War II era figure out life and his own family as he grows up. With a creative mom and an analytical dad, he quickly realizes that not everyone is onboard with his dream of telling stories through the medium. Michelle Williams, Paul Dano, Gabriel LaBelle (PG-13, 2:31)
